

Canary 4 Islands

New Adventure trail routes enjoying six incredible days on a motorcycle across four completely different islands: Gran Canaria, Fuerteventura, Lanzarote and Tenerife. The Canary Islands tour with Andries Adventures offers the client a completely unique opportunity to explore the Canary Islands. Four inter-island ferry crossings, including an overnight crossing from Lanzarote to Tenerife. Staying in high-quality hotels, enjoying the delicious Canarian cuisine. The routes are adapted to all levels of difficulty and duration for each group. The exceptional climate of the Canary Islands during the winter months, with mild temperatures between 18-25°C when southern Spain experiences its coldest season, makes this archipelago the perfect destination to maintain motorcycle activity throughout the year. The Canary Tour is added to the existing catalogue edition in different countries and continents around the world, which is constantly being renewed.

Itinerary

- 1

Day 1: Arrival in Las Palmas and first mountain route
Welcome to the Canary archipelago and first motorcycle adventure. Arrival at the KTM Valsebike dealership to collect the motorcycles and sign contracts. Welcome meeting with the team of guides where the detailed itinerary of the week will be explained and any questions will be resolved. We will immediately start our first adventure towards the impressive mountains of Gran Canaria, with the iconic Roque Nublo, a natural monument and symbol of the island at 1,813 metres altitude, as our destination. On the route we will also visit the Caldera de Tejeda and the Pico de las Nieves, the highest point on the island. Return to Las Palmas at sunset to enjoy a welcome dinner where you will meet the rest of the group while enjoying the local cuisine.

Day 2: From Gran Canaria to Tenerife - Journey to the highest peak in Spain
A day of contrasts between completely different islands. Early departure to the Port of Las Palmas to take the Trasmediterránea Armas ferry to Tenerife. Upon arrival in Santa Cruz de Tenerife, we will begin our adventure by crossing laurel forests, a unique ecosystem considered a relic of the Tertiary period. We will climb winding trails up to 2,400 metres altitude on the slopes of Teide, the highest peak in Spain. The panoramic views and changes in landscape will leave you breathless as we explore the most iconic landscapes of the island. We will descend towards the west coast to stay at the magnificent Barceló Santiago Hotel, located next to the impressive cliffs of Los Gigantes, where you can relax in its pools with ocean views of La Gomera island.

Day 3: The Crown of Teide - Volcanic Wonder of Tenerife
Experience the thrill of riding in a lunar landscape at the foot of the volcano. After a relaxed breakfast at Barceló Santiago, we will embark on a spectacular circular route through the Teide National Park. We will ride through ancient lava flows between surprising rock formations of striking colours, such as the famous Roques de García. We will stop at strategic viewpoints to capture unique photographs and enjoy the pure air of the high mountains. The route includes stops in small traditional villages where we will sample local cuisine before returning to the hotel to enjoy a spectacular sunset over the ocean from the hotel's panoramic terraces.

Day 4: Tenerife to Lanzarote - Overnight sea journey
From mountains to sea, and onwards to volcanic landscapes. After enjoying the morning in Tenerife with a small tour around the Teide area, we will head to the port where we will board the overnight Trasmediterránea Armas ferry to Lanzarote. We will sleep in comfortable cabins while sailing under the stars of the Atlantic, arriving the next morning with enough time to start our day of adventure on the island of volcanoes.
- 5

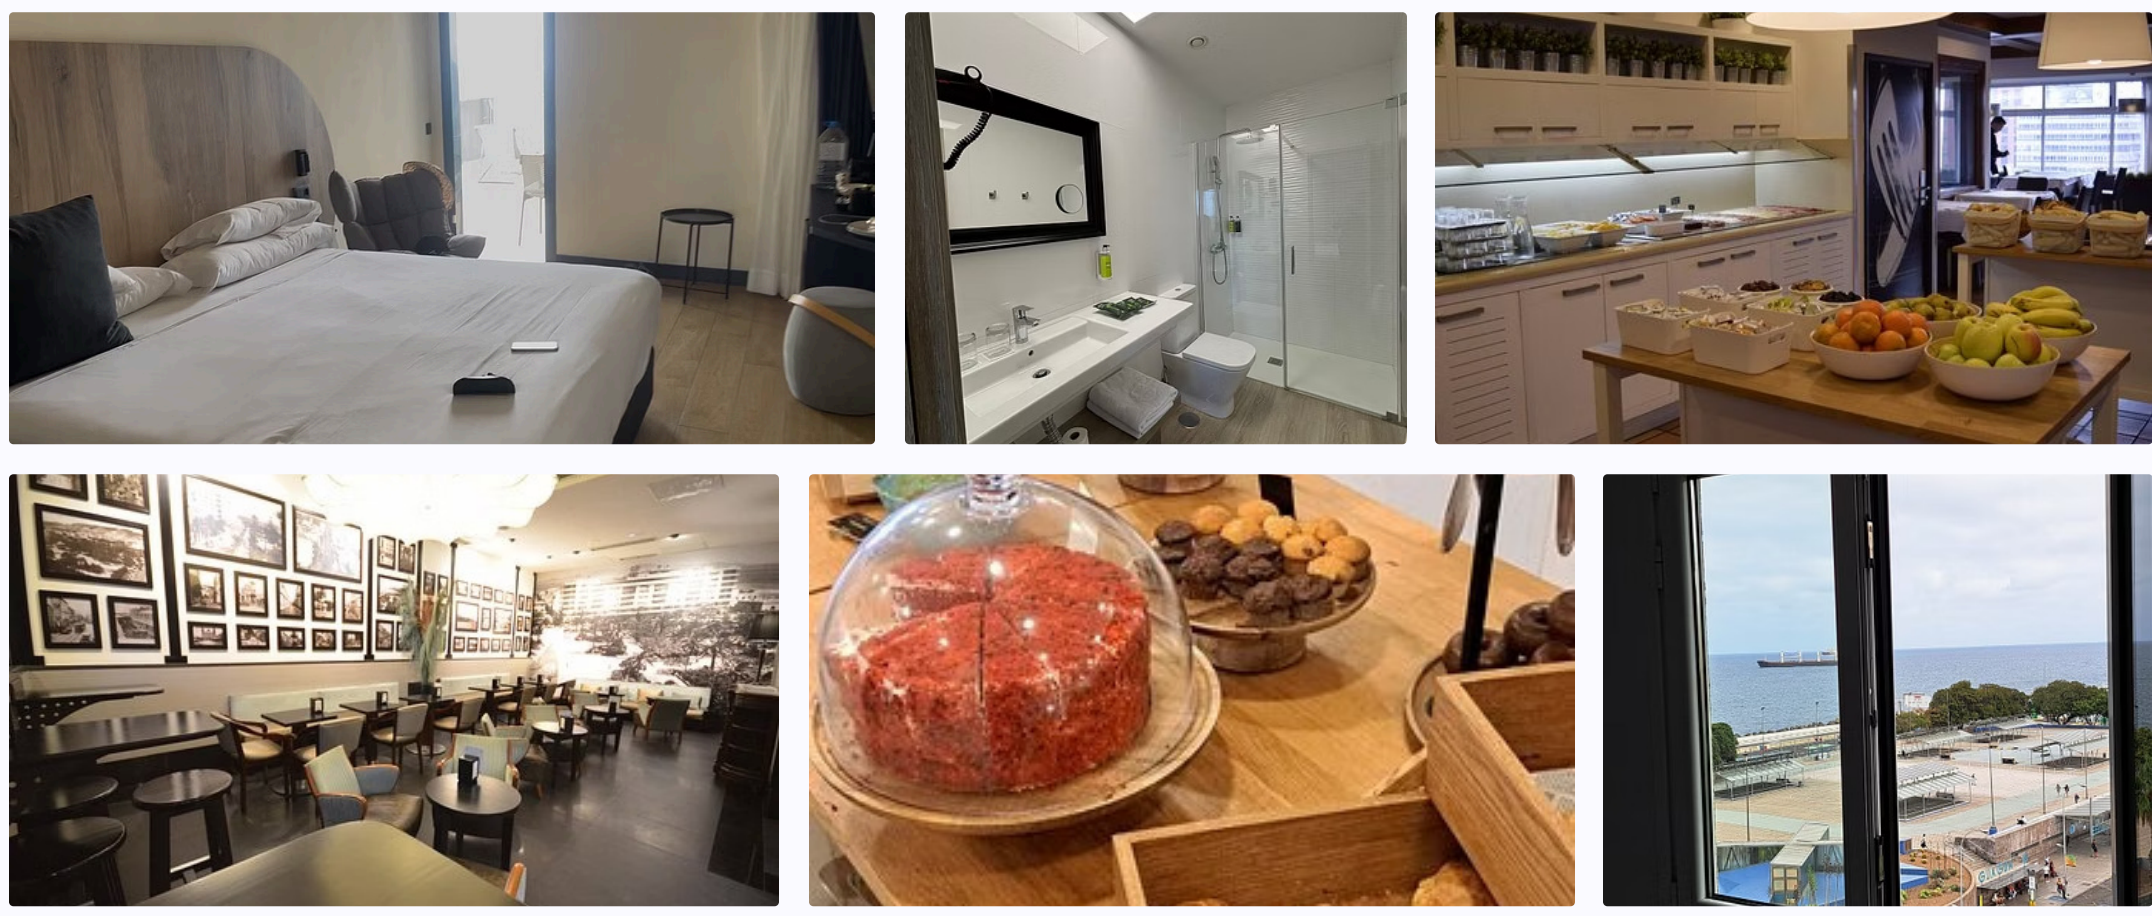

Day 5: Lanzarote to Fuerteventura - From lunar landscapes to desert dunes
Volcanic adventure and island hopping. Upon arrival in Lanzarote at dawn, we will start our adventure from Arrecife to venture into a territory shaped by volcanic eruptions, with landscapes from another planet. We will explore the Timanfaya National Park and its "Fire Mountains", experiencing riding on solidified lava fields. In the afternoon, we will take the short Trasmediterránea Armas ferry to Fuerteventura, where we will be surprised by its extensive arid landscapes and golden dunes that resemble the nearby Moroccan desert. Our route ends in Corralejo, where we will stay at the luxurious Barceló Corralejo Sand Hotel, perfectly located to enjoy the nightlife and local cuisine.

Day 6: Fuerteventura and return to Las Palmas - Closing of the adventure
The grand finale to an unforgettable week. Last day of adventure exploring Fuerteventura's dirt tracks between dormant volcanoes and vast valleys. We will ride through the stunning landscapes of this desert-like island, taking in its unique character. After a relaxed morning of riding, we will head to the port where we will enjoy a farewell lunch. In the afternoon, we will take the fast Trasmediterránea Armas ferry to return to Las Palmas de Gran Canaria, where we will return the motorcycles at the KTM Valsebike dealership and conclude our six-day tour of the islands. One last opportunity to share memories and contacts with your adventure companions before saying goodbye.
