

Spain and Morocco in 5 days

Experience the magic of Northern Morocco on this unforgettable motorcycle adventure through ancient cities, rugged mountains, and stunning coastal roads. Starting from the Spanish coast, this route takes you across the Strait of Gibraltar into a world of contrasts: from the vibrant blue city of Chefchaouen in the Rif Mountains, to the winding coastal roads of the Moroccan Mediterranean, ending in the lively port city of Nador before returning to Spain.

Day 1: Almuñécar (Esp) – Álora (230 km)

We begin our adventure in Spain, ascending from the sub-tropical coast of Almuñécar towards the majestic mountains of Andalusia. Our route takes us through spectacular mountain passes, offering breathtaking views, and traverses the famous La Axarquía wine region, known for its picturesque vineyards and white villages. We'll enjoy challenging curves and scenic landscapes before arriving at the charming Don Joaquín hotel in Álora for the night, where comfort awaits after an exhilarating day on the road.

Day 2: Álora – Ronda (155 Km)

Today, we climb through the stunning landscapes of the Sierra de Las Nieves National Park, a UNESCO Biosphere Reserve, renowned for its dramatic limestone formations and rare Spanish fir forests. We make a captivating stop in Setenil de las Bodegas, a unique village built into the rock face. Our journey culminates in the historic city of Ronda, perched dramatically above a deep gorge. Here, we'll have time to admire the iconic Puente Nuevo bridge spanning the Tajo gorge and explore its ancient bullring, one of the oldest in Spain. We will spend the night at the prestigious Hotel Don Miguel, offering splendid views.

Day 3: Ronda- Tarifa – Tangier – Chefchaouen (145 km)

We begin the day with a descent from Ronda to Tarifa, the southernmost point of continental Europe, where we board a ferry for a scenic crossing of the Strait of Gibraltar to Tangier, Morocco. After efficient customs formalities with our guide's assistance, we embark on a thrilling route through the magnificent Rif Mountains. The winding roads offer spectacular views as we make our way to Chefchaouen, the legendary Blue City. This enchanting town, with its vibrant blue-washed buildings and peaceful atmosphere, provides a magical setting for our night. We will stay in a beautiful traditional riad, immersing ourselves in local culture.

Day 4: Chefchaouen – Al Hoceima (190 km)

Today's journey takes us deeper into the heart of the Rif Mountains, heading eastward. We will navigate through winding mountain roads, experiencing the raw beauty of this rugged landscape and passing through traditional Berber villages. As we approach the coast, the scenery dramatically shifts, offering a spectacular coastal stretch with breathtaking views of the Mediterranean Sea. Our destination is Al Hoceima, a charming coastal city known for its pristine beaches and national park. We'll enjoy accommodation with stunning views overlooking the bay, providing a perfect end to a day of diverse landscapes.

Day 5: Al Hoceima – Motril (Esp) – Almuñécar (115 km)

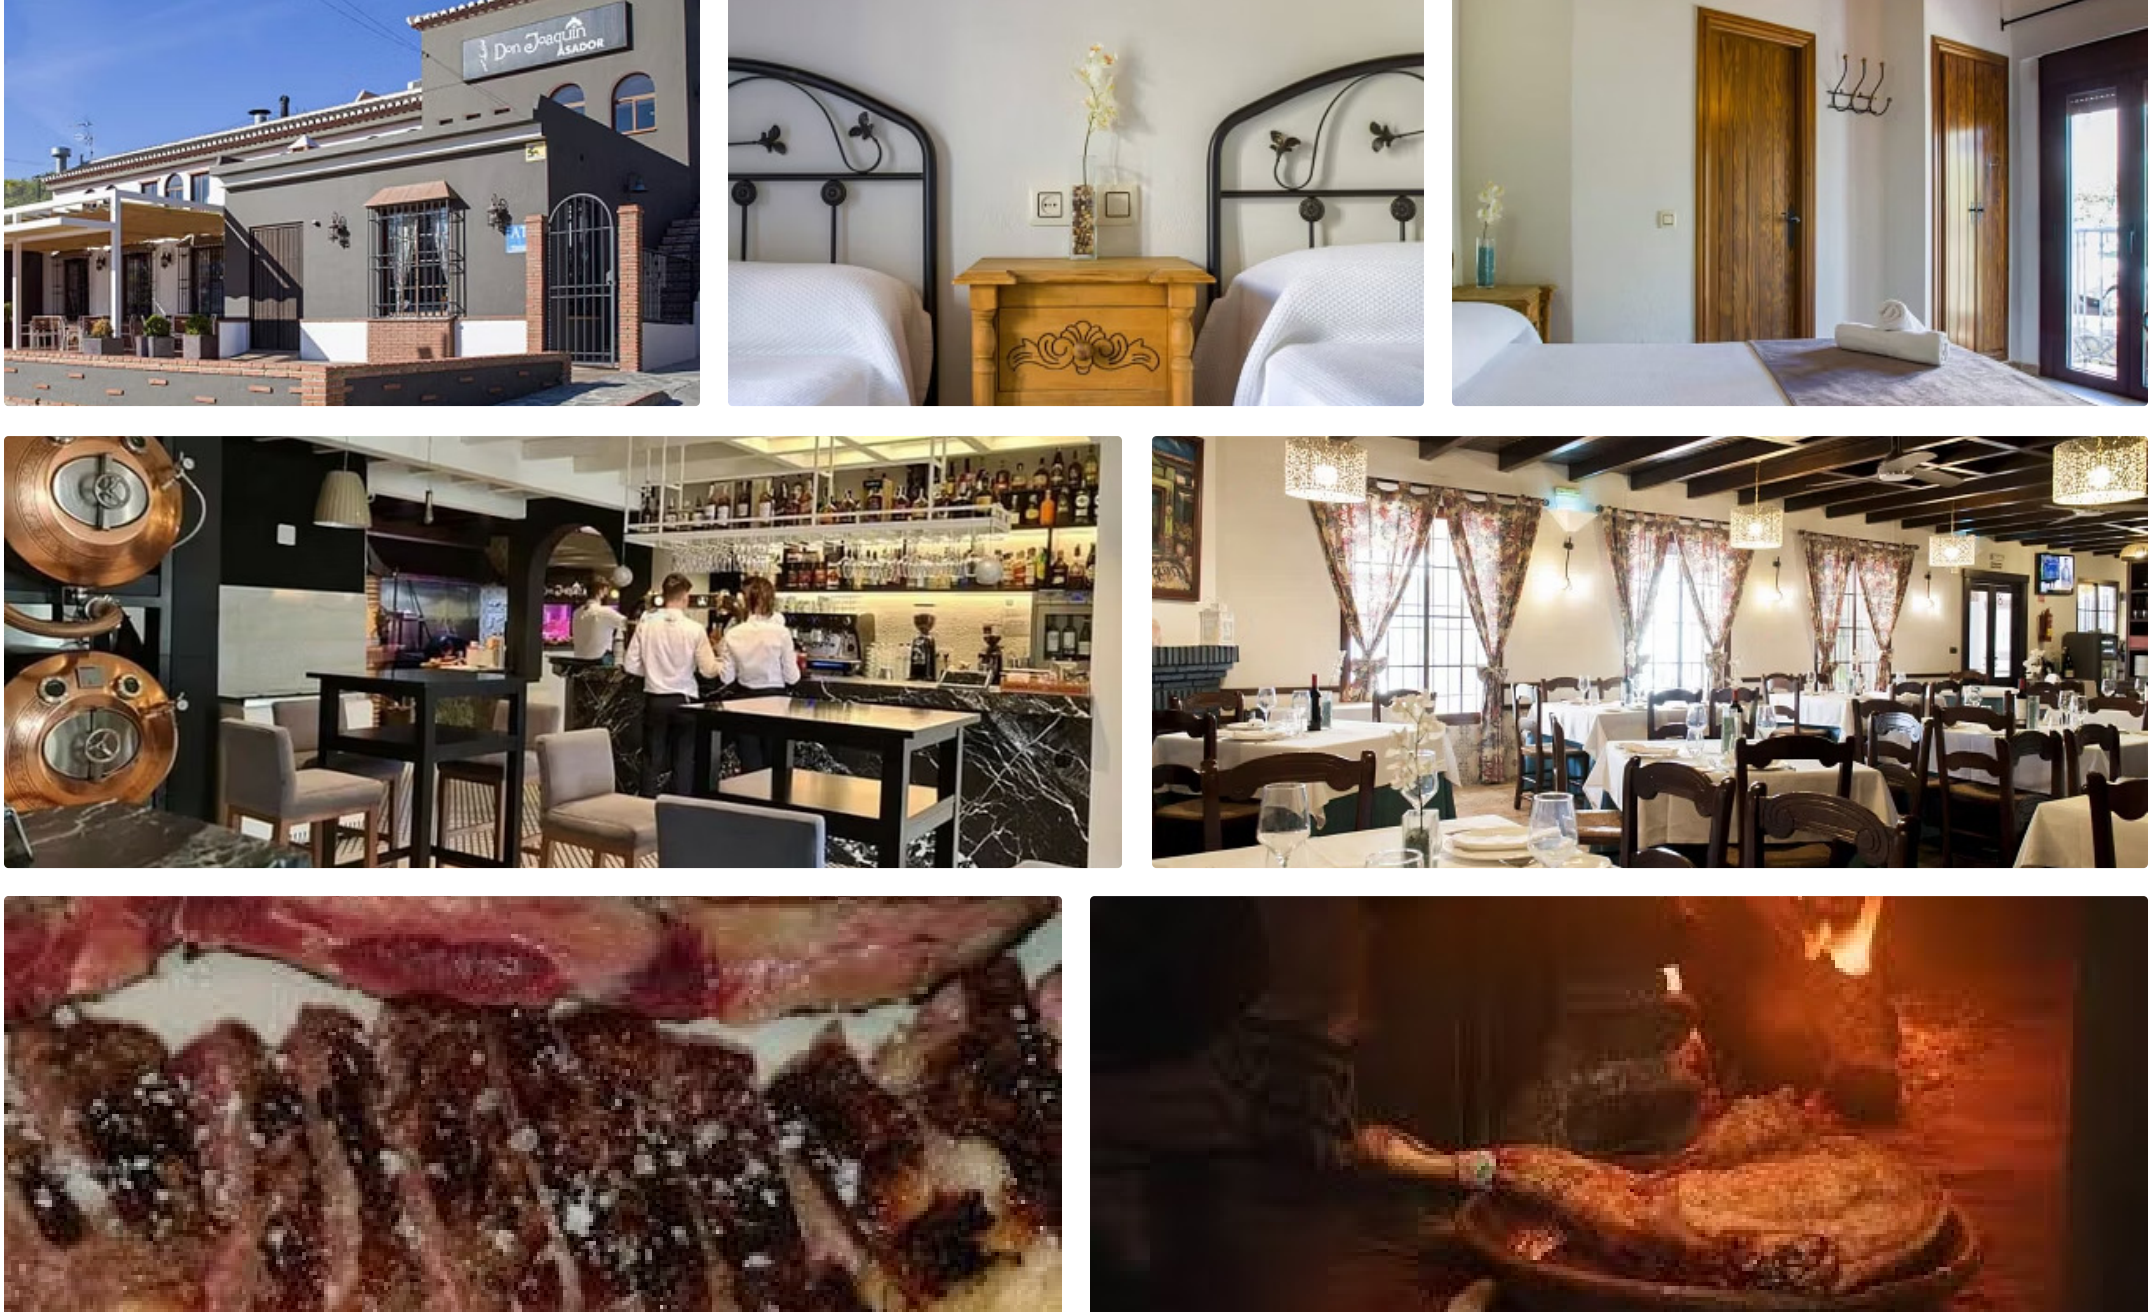

On the final day of the tour, we'll take the ferry from Al Hoceima to the port of Motril. From there, we'll enjoy a beautiful ride of just over 100 kilometers through the scenic mountains near Granada, finishing at our base in Almuñécar — the perfect ending to this short but intense adventure.

Acomodation:

We have selected distinctive hotels that offer authentically Andalusian experiences while providing comfort, motorcycle security and excellent local cuisine.

Hotel Don Joaquín:

Hotel Don Miguel:

Hotel Hotel El cortijo Spa:

Hotel Mercure Quemado:

