

2025 MotoGP Tour of Portimão

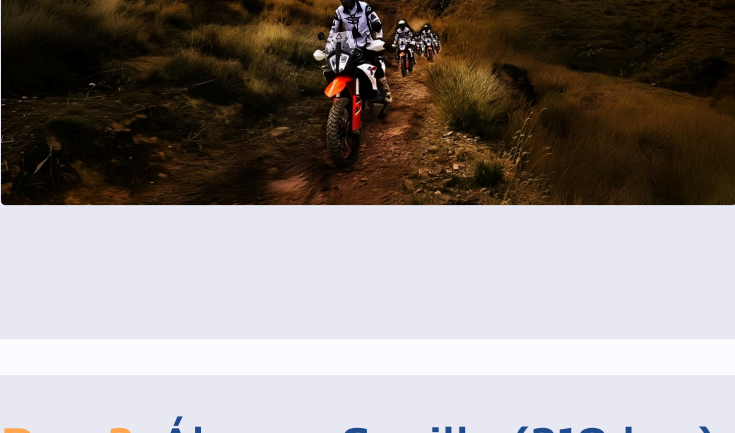

A thrilling MotoGP-themed adventure from Almuñécar to Portimão, blending off-road riding, culture, and world-class racing.

Join us on an unforgettable 9-day motorcycle journey across Spain and Portugal, culminating in the adrenaline-filled MotoGP Grand Prix in Portimão. From the scenic mountains of Ronda to the coastal views of the Algarve, this tour combines thrilling off-road trails, local gastronomy, and privileged access to the MotoGP paddocks. Ride, relax, and immerse yourself in the unique blend of two cultures united by passion for motorsports.

ITINERARY

Day 1: Almuñécar – Álora (230 km)

Departure from the tropical coast through the mountain passes of the Axarquía. Spectacular landscapes between vineyards and karst formations. Night at the Hotel Don Joaquín (Top quality restaurant).

Day 2: Álora – Seville (210 km)

Route through the white villages and mountains of Ronda. We cross the Guadalquivir valley. Accommodation at the Ilunion Alcora Hotel.

Day 3: Seville – Altura (Portugal) (180 km)

We cross the Doñana National Park (Biosphere Reserve) and its sandy tracks. Entry into Portugal. Night at the Eurotel Altura, on the Algarve coast.

Day 4: Altura – Portimão (175 km)

Scenic route along the Algarve coast with river crossings and incredible views from a winding track that runs along the hilltops. We will taste a very typical meal at Casa do Pasto O Petisco.

Night at the RR Hotel da Rocha facing Praia da Rocha.

Day 5: Portimão (circuit tour)

We will take advantage of Saturday to see the qualifying sessions or those who wish can also opt for a very fun tour of the mountains around the circuit and have an early lunch at the famous Tasca Do Petrol where you can try a delicious typical mountain cuisine of the area. Before returning in time to see the Sprint Race that starts at 3 pm

Day 6: Portimão MotoGP

Early departure to go to the circuit and get our seats to see this fantastic event from a privileged position and the end of the tour with the possibility of returning home from the nearby Faro Airport.

*There is an option to continue the tour by adding three more days on a beautiful route that will take us back to Almuñécar

Day 7: Portimão – Mértola (190 km)

Route through the Portuguese Alentejo: cork oak forests, traditional villages and technical tracks. Night at the Pousada de Mértola, accommodation with views of the Guadiana River.

Day 8: Mértola – Seville (185 km)

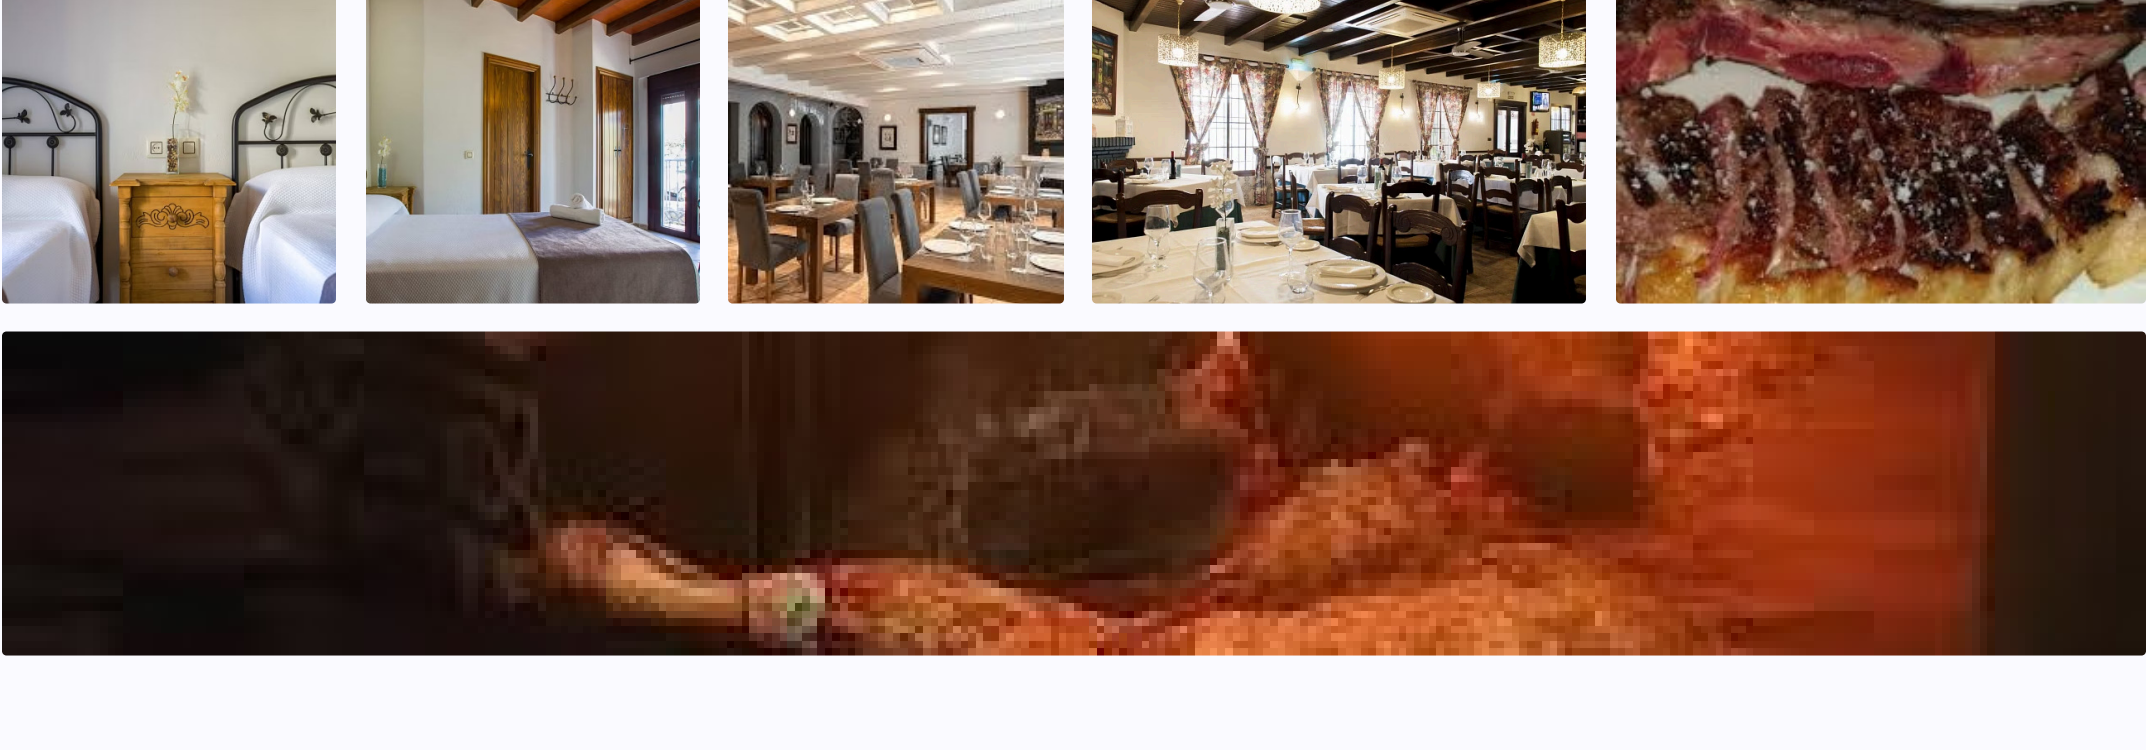

Return to Spain through the mining landscapes of the Río Tinto. Mixed routes between tracks and rural roads. Last night in Seville at the Ilunion Alcora.

Day 9: Seville – Almuñécar (230 km)

Final stage towards the coast of Granada. Mountain passes with views of the Mediterranean. Triumphant arrival in Almuñécar and farewell celebration.

Accommodations:

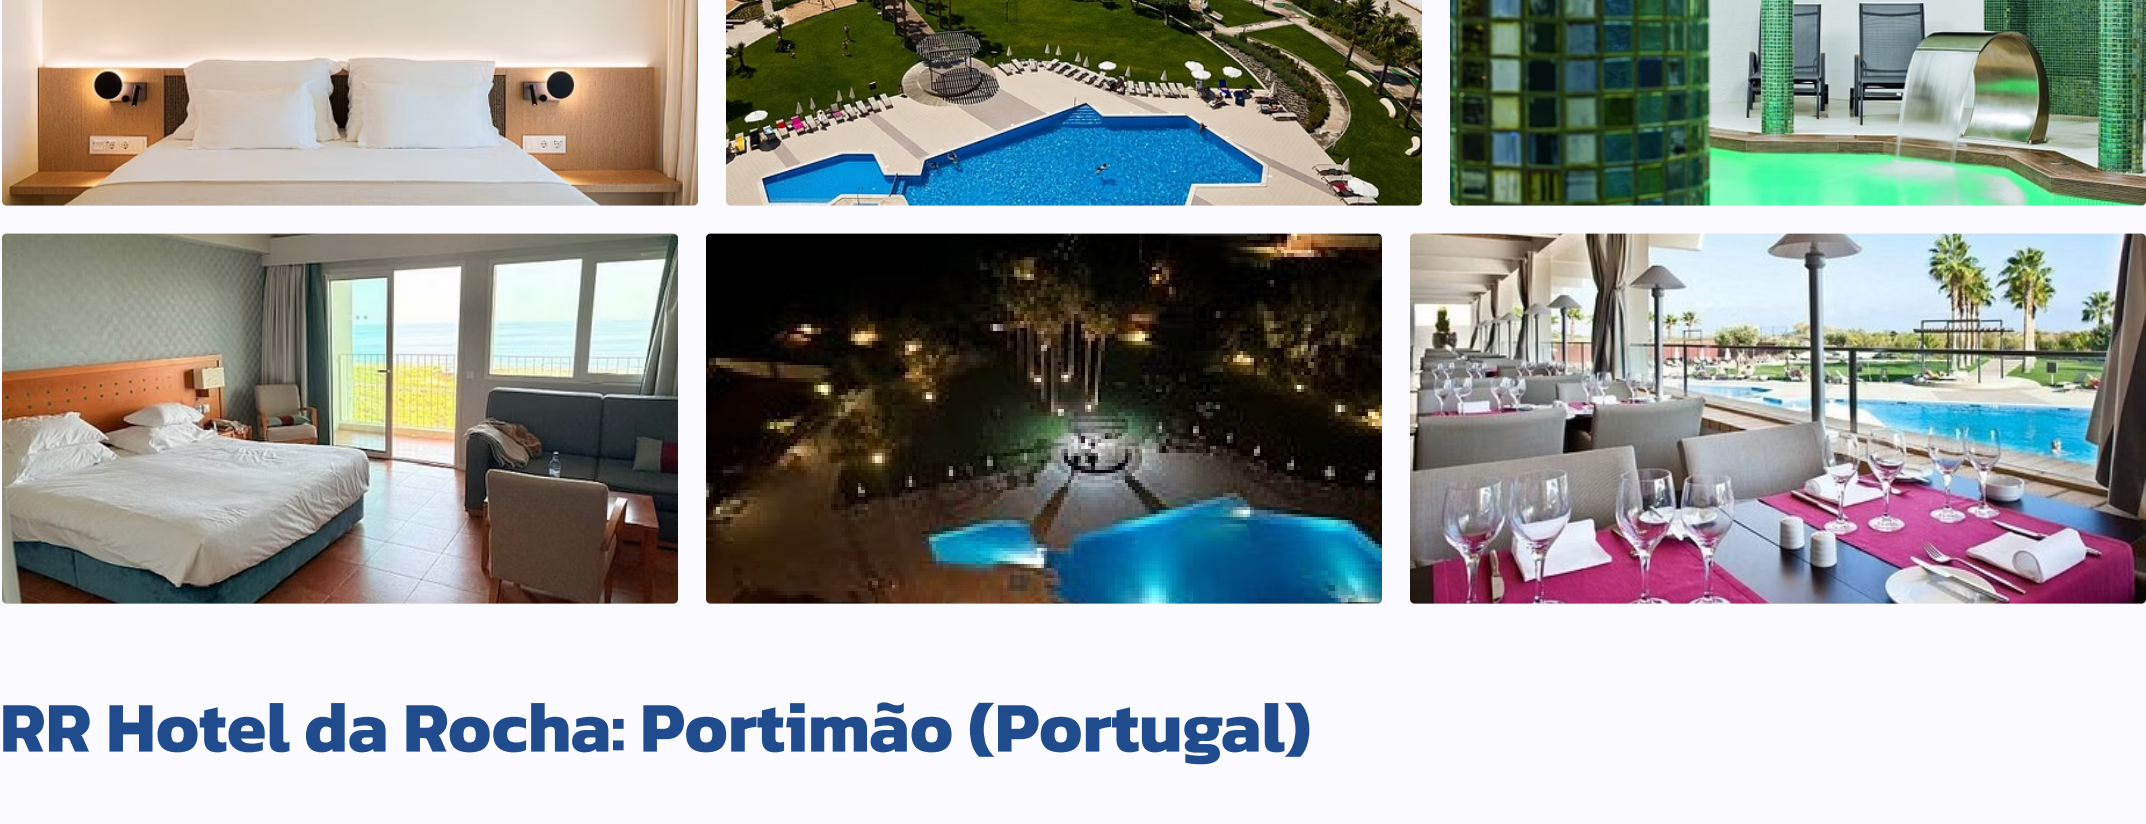

Hotel Don Joaquim: Álora (Spain)

Hotel Ilunion Alcora: Sevilla (Spain)

Eurotel Altura: Montegordo (Portugal)

RR Hotel da Rocha: Portimão (Portugal)

